Town Hall Arts Center Presents
The Man Who Came to Dinner

Littleton, CO – The fourth production in Town Hall Arts Center’s 2015-2016 Season will be The Man Who Came to Dinner, written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman. The Man Who Came to Dinner is directed Bob Wells, recently at Town Hall directing the 2015 holiday production of Shrek and the very popular The Marvelous Wonderettes in Spring 2015.

Celebrated theatre critic Sheridan Whiteside is in the midst of a cross-country lecturing tour when he slips on ice, breaking his leg and is forced to stay a bit longer at the home of his host family, ultimately taking over the house with his demands and visiting Broadway luminary friends. Rich with witty tongue-twisting dialogue and sharp zingers, The Man Who Came to Dinner is simply one of the funniest scripts of all time

Featured in this production is Eric Fry as Sheridan Whiteside. Eric was most recently seen at Town Hall in the 2012 production of Sweet Charity, as Herman. Taylor Nicole Young returns to Town Hall after just completing a run of Shrek, The Musical to portray Whiteside’s assistant Maggie Cutler. Many favorite Town Hall actors including Leslie Randle, John Gleason, John Mackey and LuAnn Buckstein return to round out this amazing ensemble cast.
