Town Hall Arts Center Presents “Western Heritage”

Littleton, CO – Town Hall Arts Center is proud to present “Western Heritage,” an art exhibition in the Stanton Art Gallery at Town Hall. Featuring work by Lee Wasilik and Diane Edwards, the exhibit opens August 5th and runs through September 7th, 2015. There will be an Artist Reception Friday, August 7th, 2015 from 5:30 – 8:00pm and is open to the public.

Lee Wasilik is a Littleton-based artist that has been involved in art, in one way or another, since the age of five. His work in oil, acrylic, pastel, and watercolor has won numerous awards in national, statewide, and local shows. Ranging from the real to the abstract, his paintings hang in more than two dozen private collections in Colorado, Idaho, California, Virginia, and Texas.

Diane Edwards has been creating art all her life; she devotes most of her time to painting and teaching as well as writing. Diane has written eight books on Scandinavian folk art painting, and painted murals in restaurants, motels and in private homes. Her work is in the Medical Center of the Rockies, Women’s Clinic, Kaiser Permanente clinics and she has done two McDonald’s restaurants and two Best Western Hotel restaurants with murals and decorated pieces.

Town Hall Arts Center is also participating in the Historic Downtown Littleton First Friday Art Walks. The next Art Walk is Friday, August 7th, 2015, from 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm. For more information on participating galleries go to <http://www.littletonrocks.com/events/artwalk-aug/>.
